Hi Tom,

Thank you so much for looking after my home whilst I travelled overseas. This was the first time I have rented my property out and I was nervous as you hear horror stories all the time.

I had been let down by someone renting my place just before I flew out and contacted a few agents before I decided to put my trust in you, I'm glad I did because you handled everything better than I could of asked for.

I would definitely recommend you to my friends and family if they ever needed real estate help.

Cheers

Jodi
